

Citizenship Across Borders: New forms in a post-national world

International conference

Organized by

University of Strasbourg – Syracuse University

Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs of Syracuse University

Université de Strasbourg, DRES National Centre for Scientific Research UMR 7354

Syracuse Abroad and the Syracuse Strasbourg Center

20-21 October 2022

Strasbourg

October 20th Thursday

Université de Strasbourg, Palais Universitaire, Salle Pasteur

9h00-9h15 Welcome in the Aula of the University Palace

9h30 Opening: Carol Faulkner / Samim Akgönül

Welcome address: Erika Wilkens (Syracuse Abroad) / Vincente Fortier (DRES research center)

Raymond Bach (Syracuse Strasbourg Center)

10h45

Keynote: Elizabeth Cohen, Syracuse University: Citizenship Across Generations

12h00 Lunch break sponsored by DRES Research Center

Restaurant « la Victoire », 24 Quai des Pêcheurs, 67000 Strasbourg

13h30 Panel 1

Citizenship as a construction: Language, Literature and Perceptions
Chair: Samim Akgönül

Dympna Callaghan, Syracuse University: “Poor citizen, distressed”: Shakespeare and the Citizen

Jennifer K. Dick, University of Haute Alsace: Under Flag: Language and (Unattainable) Homogenization in the Era of Postnational Citizenship

Subhasree Ghosh, University of Calcutta, From Subjects to Citizens: 'Constructing' Citizenship in Post-Colonial India, 1947-1955

15h00-15h15 Coffee Break

15h15 Panel 2

Post-ottoman nationhood and citizenship

Chair: Seth Jolly

Samim Akgönül, University of Strasbourg: Why immigrants vote? External vote of Turks in Europe and loyalty concerns

Yunus Sözen, LeMoyne College: Pro-immigration Right-Wing Authoritarian Populism: Redefining Nation and Citizenship in Turkey

Inci Öykü Yener-Roderburg, University of Essen-Duisburg: Non-voter remote refugee partisanship: Evidence from the non-voter Kurds for the Turkish Elections in Germany

16h45-17h00 coffee break

17h00 Panel 3

Legal citizenship: roots and mutations

Chair: John J. Goodman

Chris R. Kyle, Syracuse University: Birthright Naturalization Law: An English Historical Perspective

Andres Sanchez-Padilla, Centro Universitario de la Defensa de Zaragoza: Defining the Rules of Naturalization: Sovereignty, Citizenship, and U.S.-Spanish Relations (1868-1884)

Dalia Abdelhady, Lund University, and Amy Lutz, Syracuse University: Lived Citizenship among the Children of North African Immigrants

18h30 Break before Dinner

19h30 Conference dinner sponsored by the Maxwell School,
Restaurant "Au pont Saint Martin" 15 Rue des Moulins, 67000 Strasbourg

October 21st Friday

Syracuse University Strasbourg Center, Room 202/203

19 Quai Rouget de Lisle

8h30-9h00 Welcome and coffee

9h00 Panel 4

Challenges of Immigration between Africa and Europe
Chair: Mary Boyington

Seth Jolly, Syracuse University: Immigration as the Key Structuring Issue of Party Politics in Europe

Kishauna Soljour, San Diego State University: Afrique Sur Seine: Sub-Saharan African Migration and Acculturation in France

John Goodman, Syracuse University Strasbourg Center: Citizenship as a Mirage: Diplomatic Challenges and Suspended Citizenship in the Sahel

10h30-10h045 coffee break

10h45 Panel 5

Citizenship and identity: Gender and Social Movements
Chair: Carol Faulkner

Azra Hromadžić, Syracuse University: A City in Love with the River in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Debora Spini, Syracuse University Florence Center: "My Indianness is my religion": inclusive citizenship and the women protest of Shaheen Bagh, New Delhi

Dagmar Wernitznig, University of Ljubijana: Citizenship, Gender, and Post-War Transitions: Historiographical Case Studies of Alien Women

12h30 Lunch break sponsored by Syracuse Abroad
Restaurant Le Jasmin 1 Rue Schimper, 67000 Strasbourg

14h00 Round table and debate

And then what? New nationalism in Post-national era

With H el ene Quanquin, University of Lille; Carol Faulkner, Syracuse University; Samim Akg on ul, University of Strasbourg; Elizabeth Cohen, Syracuse University

16h00 End of the conference and free time in Strasbourg