

Urban Transformations and Marginalisation in Contemporary India: Social Practices and Cultural Representations

Symposium - 14-15 February 2024

University of Strasbourg

Salle de conférences - MISHA

(Maison interuniversitaire des sciences de l'homme – Alsace)

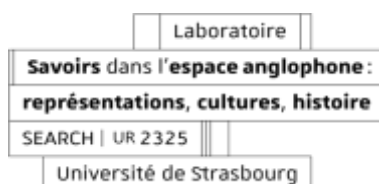

5, allée du Général Rouvillois, Strasbourg

PROGRAMME

Bazar in a Muslim Mohallah, Firozabad, Uttar Pradesh. Photo credits: Arnaud Kaba, Firozabad, 2019.

With the support of SEARCH (University of Strasbourg), LINCS (University of Strasbourg) and LAVUE (University Paris 8)

14 FEBRUARY

13h-13h15 Welcome

13h15-13h30 Introduction - Marianne Hillion (University of Strasbourg) & Arnaud Kaba (University Paris 8)

13h30 – 14h45 Waste, labour and marginalisation

- Priyam Tripathi (Excelia Group, Cachan): The Dumping Grounds: Toxic Air and Necropolitics in Mumbai.
- Gayatri Jai Singh Rathore (Paris 1 Pantheon Sorbonne): Urban Planning, Marginalisation and Configuring the Contemporary City through the Case of Scrap Markets of Delhi.

Chair: Marie Caroline Saglio-Yatzimirski

Coffee Break

15h-16h15 Capturing urban marginalisation through poetry and nonfiction

- Alex Tickell (Open University, London): Literary Journalism, Atmosphere and the Undercity
- Manon Boukhroufa-Trijaud (Sorbonne Université, Paris): Bombay/Mumbai Bilder einer Mega-Stadt, Stegmüller, Chitre, Dhasal - Capturing an Invisible and Vanishing Cityscape across Languages and Forms

Chair: Gayatri Jai Singh Rathore

16h15-17h Book presentation

- Marie-Caroline Saglio-Yatzimirski (INALCO, Paris): Dharavi, Heart of Bombay/Mumbai: Resistance and Fiction of/in an Indian Slum

Chair: Marianne Hillion

15 FEBRUARY

9h30-10h45 The city and its new margins

- Pushpa Arabindoo (University College London): Chennai/Madras: Neo-marginalities in a split city
- Binti Singh (KRVA, Mumbai): Urban Infrastructure, Neo Liberal Urbanism and Inequalities in the Indian City

Chair: TBA

Coffee Break

11h-12h15 Security and violence in the Indian neoliberal city

- Thibault Lukacs (EHESS, Paris): Incarnations du Mafia Raj dans le bassin minier de Jharia
- Damien Carrière (Ecole d'urbanisme de Paris, CESSMA): Security Guards and the Entrepreneurial Takeover of Delhi's Street

Chair: Arnaud Kaba

12h15-14h Lunch at Le 32 (32 boulevard de la Victoire, Strasbourg)

14h15-15h30 Roundtable: Writing about minorities in contemporary India

- Arnaud Kaba: Writing on marginalized working classes: the case of Muslim workers in contemporary India
- Marianne Hillion: Literary nonfiction and the writing of marginalised lives: the case of Aman Sethi

Chair: Jérôme Beauchez

Coffee Break

15h45-17h Mobilities and Density in Shifting Urbanities

- Kamala Marius (University of Bordeaux Montaigne) and Venkatasubramaniam (Researcher, French Institute of Pondicherry): Daily work mobility and gender inequalities in the urban periphery of a smart city: the case study of Pondicherry smart city
- Emmanuelle Rombach (ENSAS, Strasbourg): Strasbourg Mumbai - complex densities seen through the lens of the "Villages in the City"

Chair Agnès Deboulet, TBC